

ACCT1124 - Spreadsheet Applications

Credits:	3 (3/0/0)
Description:	This course provides students with in-depth coverage of a spreadsheet application as used in a business setting. Students should be familiar with Windows and word processing.
Prerequisites:	• BUS1100
Corequisites:
Pre/Corequisites * :
Competencies:	<ol> <li>Demonstrate in-depth knowledge of the use of algebraic formulas for formula entry and auditing.</li> <li>Demonstrate critical thinking skills in gathering, formatting and disseminating data.</li> <li>Use relative, mixed and absolute cell references in formulas and functions.</li> <li>Demonstrate in-depth knowledge of financial, statistical and logical functions to calculate, report and analyze business data.</li> <li>Create and format charts.</li> <li>Consolidate data across multiple worksheets and workbooks.</li> <li>Import and format data from external sources.</li> <li>Use data analysis tools including data tables, pivot tables and charts.</li> <li>Use advanced filtering and sorting techniques.</li> </ol>
MnTC goal areas:	None

**Can be taking as a Prerequisite or Corequisite.*