

CRJU1106 - Introduction to Corrections/Probation

Credits:	3 (3/0/0)
Description:	This course examines the historical and contemporary correctional theories and programs with emphasis on the current organizational structure. Probation, parole and correctional alternatives are also explored.
Prerequisites:
Corequisites:
Pre/Corequisites*:
Competencies:	<ol> <li>Identify the role of probation/corrections within the criminal justice system.</li> <li>Describe the role and functions of correctional institutions in the United States.</li> <li>Examine data on the effectiveness of probation and corrections.</li> <li>Develop a philosophical format for debate on appropriate outcomes for offenders.</li> <li>Explain terminology and process related to the correctional field.</li> <li>Explain information relative to the evolution and changing practices of corrections within the criminal justice system.</li> <li>Describe the importance of effective interplay between the components of the criminal justice system.</li> <li>Express an understanding of the format and philosophy of the Minnesota Sentencing Guidelines.</li> <li>Examine Minnesota and national trends and perspectives of corrections.</li> <li>Analyze many facets of offender sentencing and supervision such as causes, considerations, and parameters.</li> <li>Compare varying perspectives on correctional functions and roles by exposure to practicing professionals.</li> </ol>
MnTC goal areas:	None

*Can be taking as a Prerequisite or Corequisite.