

DNHY1114 - Radiology Lab II

Credits:	1 (0/1/0)
Description:	Dental Hygiene students will be introduced to techniques and processes for exposing digital full-mouth series and extra-oral digital radiographs on skulls, manikins and patients. Students will utilize these techniques and processes to expose digital radiographs and evaluate them for diagnostic value according to M State Dental Criteria for Radiographic Acceptability.
Prerequisites:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• DENT1106</li> <li>• DNHY1113</li> </ul>
Corequisites:
Pre/Corequisites*:
Competencies:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Demonstrate correct technique basics for digital intra-oral and extra-oral radiographs on patients.</li> <li>2. Demonstrate safe infection control procedures.</li> <li>3. Perform accurate documentation of procedures in patient charts according to the State of Minnesota record-keeping requirements.</li> <li>4. Practice specific radiologic techniques for clients with special needs.</li> <li>5. Identify factors and principles of diagnostically acceptable dental images.</li> <li>6. Identify radiographic errors and their specific methods of correction.</li> <li>7. Identify the correct placement and arrangement of intra-oral radiographic surveys.</li> <li>8. Identify typical images of anatomic structures as recorded in the bite-wing and periapical dental radiographs.</li> <li>9. Understand the biological effects of radiation and the necessary safety precautions that must be followed in the dental setting.</li> </ol>
MnTC goal areas:	None

*Can be taking as a Prerequisite or Corequisite.