

ECHO2210 - Adult Echocardiography Clinical II

Credits:	10 (0/0/10)
Description:	This course provides a continued supervised clinical practicum, increasing proficiency in diagnosing advanced cardiovascular disease. The final goal of this course is to achieve the competency level required to work as an entry-level cardiac sonographer.
Prerequisites:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• ECHO2200</li> </ul>
Corequisites:
Pre/Corequisites*:
Competencies:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Develop a working knowledge of an echocardiography department's functions, goals and equipment.</li> <li>2. Apply didactic and clinical knowledge and become familiar with the protocols of the clinical site.</li> <li>3. Demonstrate how to communicate on a basic, professional level with healthcare staff and patients.</li> <li>4. Demonstrate the critical thinking, cognitive and psychomotor skills required for clinical work.</li> <li>5. Demonstrate basic patient care skills necessary to be a competent healthcare provider.</li> <li>6. Demonstrate how to care for laboratory equipment.</li> <li>7. Demonstrate the role of echocardiography in patient diagnosis and management.</li> </ol>
MnTC goal areas:	None

*Can be taking as a Prerequisite or Corequisite.