

ELEC2205 - Introduction to Commercial Wiring

Credits:	3 (1/2/0)
Description:	This course examines the material and design aspects of commercial wiring. Topics include raceways, boxes, design requirements for conduit layouts, circuit overcurrent protection and lighting.
Prerequisites:	• ELEC1104 • ELEC1122
Corequisites:
Pre/Corequisites*:
Competencies:	<ol> <li>Demonstrate electrical safety.</li> <li>Identify National Electrical Code requirements.</li> <li>Lay out and design electrical circuits.</li> <li>Install electrical circuits.</li> <li>Calculate circuit requirements.</li> <li>Troubleshoot electrical circuits.</li> <li>Identify electrical materials.</li> <li>Interpret commercial blueprints.</li> <li>Determine commercial load requirements.</li> </ol>
MnTC goal areas:	None

*Can be taking as a Prerequisite or Corequisite.