

AMERICAN SIGN LANGUAGE STUDIES

CERTIFICATE - 18 CREDITS

About this program

The American Sign Language (ASL) Studies certificate provides students with a basic knowledge of American Sign Language and Deaf culture. The curriculum provides a foundation for entry into a career in a deafness-related field and prepares students for continued educational studies in more advanced preparation for ASL interpreter certification. This program does not prepare students to become interpreters.

Program outcomes

1. Demonstrate basic conversational skills and use of appropriate American Sign Language vocabulary, finger spelling and numbers.
2. Effectively communicate in a variety of settings with people who are deaf or hard of hearing.
3. Prepare to meet ASL prerequisites for sign language interpreter education programs.
4. Comprehend that the Deaf community shares a set of values, rules and traditions that differ from typical American values.

Course summaries

ASL1100 - Introduction to Deaf Studies (3 credits)

This course introduces the language and culture of the Deaf and provides a general introduction to the lives of Deaf people. It covers key concepts within Deaf Studies, the diversity of Deaf community members, technology used by the Deaf and professions involving American Sign Language (ASL) and Deaf people. Students will analyze existing stereotypes related to Deaf and hard-of-hearing people and the cultural impacts of being Deaf.

Prerequisites:

- Assessment into ENGL1101

ASL1101 - American Sign Language and Deaf Culture I (3 credits)

This is the first in a series of courses designed to develop the skills and knowledge needed to communicate in American Sign Language (ASL). This course introduces information about the Deaf community and Deaf culture. It will familiarize students with basic ASL vocabulary and grammar, including hand shapes, body movements and facial expressions to convey meaning. The course includes interactive activities, cultural awareness education and individual feedback, with emphasis on appropriate language use in common communication settings.

Prerequisites:

- Assessment into ENGL1101

ASL1102 - American Sign Language and Deaf Culture II (3 credits)

This is the second in a series of courses designed to develop the skills and knowledge needed to communicate in American Sign Language (ASL). ASL 1102 will focus on vocabulary development, fingerspelling, numbers and grammatical structure. This course includes further practice with both expressive and receptive ASL, along with additional information about the Deaf Community and Deaf Culture.

Prerequisites:

- ASL1101
- Grade of B or better in ASL1101.

ASL1103 - American Sign Language and Deaf Culture III (3 credits)

This is the third in a series of courses designed to develop the skills and knowledge needed to communicate in American Sign Language (ASL). The course will focus on speed, fluency, vocabulary expansion and conversational skills, along with reinforcement of appropriate grammar usage. It also will examine attitudes, values and cultural norms of the Deaf Community.

Prerequisites:

- ASL1102
- Grade of B or better in ASL1102

ASL1104 - American Sign Language and Deaf Culture IV (3 credits)

This course, the fourth in a series of American Sign Language (ASL) and Deaf culture courses, focuses upon the grammatical features of ASL and vocabulary expansion. Content of this course will focus on sentence construction, inflecting verbs and classifiers. Fluency and accuracy of fingerspelling will continue to be developed, along with the use of lexicalized signs and numbering.

Prerequisites:

- Grade of B or better in ASL1103

ASL1105 - Advanced Fingerspelling and Numbers (3 credits)

This course focuses on enhancing expressive and receptive fingerspelling and numbers in American Sign Language (ASL). ASL1105 will expand the emphasis on using fingerspelling, lexicalized and abbreviated words, and ASL numbers, along with continued study of the complex rules and patterns of ASL number systems.

Prerequisites:

- ASL 1101 and a grade of B or better in ASL 1101
